I go to your site every once in a while, and what I saw this afternoon is just an outrage. You need to have some info on one of your "phonies". I also need for you to tell me that what I tell you does NOT go into your site. NO MATTER what it is.

Respectfully

First, in case you want to "verify" who I am, my name is Charles E. Frank Sr. I am retired from the U S Army, Sgt. 1st Class. I am a veteran of the Korean Conflict and Vietnam. I did two tours in Germany. I was awarded the Defense Service Medal and the Combat Infantry Badge. I finished my hitch at Ft. McClellan, Al. I am originally from Harrisburg, Pa., and I was born in 1929.

I am asking you as one vet to another, the last info you put on your site concerning one Mr. Davis, to please remove it. That operation is highly classified and everyone involved with it are considered war criminals by the Chinese Gov't and they want these people to stand trial and imprison them. You have put this man and his family at grave risk.

Then I must say, that you sir, have no honor. You would put his family in jepordy, and for what? To appease your ego and single minded course? He did not send that info to you, it came from an unknown party. No one involved in this would ever say anything about it. I am just asking that you remove that one single item and keep the rest there if you wish.

Respectfully

Charles Frank

We post this obit with our deepest sympathy extended to the family of Charles Frank Sr. It is one vile, ghastly man that would steal the identity of a honorable veteran for his own sick purpose and impersonate him AFTER HIS DEATH to "validate" his own fairy tale lies.

Charles E. Frank Sr.

WEAVER — Graveside services with full military honors for SFC Charles E. Frank, Sr., US Army, Retired, age 80, of Weaver, will be at 11a.m. on Thursday, March 19, 2009 at Anniston Memorial Gardens with the Reverend Cadrew Strickland officiating. The family will receive friends from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. on Wednesday evening at K.L. Brown Memory Chapel in Golden Springs. Mr. Frank died Monday, March 16, 2009 at NE Alabama Regional Medical Center. A native of Harrisburg, PA, Mr. Frank proudly served his country in the US Army and retired with the rank of Sergeant First Class. He was a decorated veteran of the Korean and Vietnam wars receiving the Defense Service Medal and Combat Infantry Badge. He also served two tours of duty in Germany. While stationed at Ft.

McClellan, he was in Supply and Logistics. Mr. Frank had been the Volunteer Fire Chief for the Weaver Fire Department. He was a member of the Elks Lodge and the VFW. He was Protestant by faith and was a man who was truly dedicated to his family. Mr. Frank is preceded in death by his son, Samuel Edward Frank, and his
