

Communist POW Camps during the Korean War

Known camp locations where American prisoners were held

7,245 American soldiers and airmen were captured by the Chinese and North Koreans during the Korean War.

2,806 American POWs died in captivity (almost 39% of all U.S. POWs).

670 U.S. POWs escaped from captivity - all of them from temporary holding facilities near the front lines shortly after capture.

More than 8,100 U.S. Servicemen remain missing in action (MIA) from the Korean War.